ANIA MAGLIANO: I CAN'T BELIEVE
YOU'VE DONE THIS

Wednesday 1 May, 7.30pm

£14 18+

You can take my money. You can take my dignity. You can take too much off the ends. But you cannot take my right to talk about it on stage. This is a show about the worst haircut of Ania Magliano's life.

A TALK BY ANDREW
GRAHAM DIXON

Thursday 2 May, 7pm

£20 advance / £18 concession/
young person

In this wide-ranging talk, Andrew plays the role both of biographer and detective to discuss the principles and practice of art appreciation. He will explore some of his favourite paintings from many different corners of the history of art, telling the fascinating stories that lie behind them and revealing their often hidden meanings.

COVER: Fred Appleyard, Itchen Valley Landscape with Figure, c1930.

FOLK TALISK

Monday 13 May, 7.30pm

£18 advance / £20 on the door

Amongst the most talked-about folk bands of the 21st century, Talisk tear apart stereotypes and redefine the genre. Wielding instruments that have rarely seen the likes of their music, Talisk, have gathered major awards for their explosively energetic sound.

BARNSTORMERS

Friday 17 May, 8pm

£12.50 advance / £14 on the door
/ £5 young person 18+

Our regular comedy night at The Arc, Barnstormers Comedy presents a line-up of three top acts from the London comedy circuit and beyond: many of them Comedy Store regulars.

CHASING THE SUN (FILM SCREENING)

Saturday 18 May, 4pm & 7pm

£10 / £5 children

In 1973 a professor in a little known American university set out to discover the most energy efficient creature on earth: turns out, it's a human being on a bicycle! The experiment has since entered into legend and is now more relevant than ever before.

WIRE WOOL EVENTS:

TRAILBLAZER – BARBARA LEIGH SMITH BODICHON: A TALK BY JANE ROBINSON

Thursday 23 May, 7pm

£15

Jane Robinson has a proven talent for finding unsung heroines behind the scenes of history. This time she has discovered a hidden gem. Victorian Barbara Leigh Smith Bodichon opened many of the doors we step through as modern women, unaware of her part in changing our world.

Mark Thomas

MARK THOMAS: GAFFA TAPES: WARM UP

Friday 24 May, 8pm

£15 / £10 concession 18+

Join Mark as he tries out material for his brand-new show. Jokes, rants, politics, play, and the occasional sing-song.

THE PANTALOONS PRESENT: THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST

Thursday 30 May, 7.30pm

£16 advance / £18 on the door /
£12 concession /
£14 young person

Wilde's comic masterpiece gets The Pantaloons treatment in their anarchic take on the classic comedy of manners. This energetic and musical production infuses Wilde's witty words with snappy new songs and frantically funny physical theatre to give this popular play a hilarious contemporary twist.

Catherine Bohart

CATHERINE BOHART: AGAIN WITH FEELINGS

Friday 31 May, 8pm

£14 advance and on the door 18+

Catherine Bohart is back and older than ever. And adulthood frankly isn't living up to her expectations. Join her for a hilariously twisted second coming of age saga as she reckons with death obsessed parents, living in a house share with OCD and queer reproduction in her thirties.

FOLK GENTICORUM - QUÉBÉCOIS TRIO

Saturday 1 June, 7.30pm

£17 advance / £20 on the door

With impeccable musicianship and an infectious joie de vivre, Genticorum are amongst the most distinctive voices in traditional Québécois music, seamlessly melding fiddle, flute, accordion, guitar, foot percussion and voices.

GRAYSON PERRY – THE ESSEX HOUSE TAPESTRIES: THE LIFE OF JULIE COPE

Continues until 12 June

£4.50 / £3.50 concession / £2.50 child

Two exquisite tapestries, from a series of four, tell the life story of Julie Cope, a fictional character created by artist Grayson Perry. The tapestries illustrate key events in the heroine's journey, from birth to marriage. Rich in cultural and architectural details, the tapestries contain a social history of modern Britain that everyone can relate to. On loan from the Crafts Council, Essex House Tapestries: the Life of Julie Cope, 2015. Crafts Council Collection: 2016.18–19.

A Perfect Match, Grayson Perry, 2015. Crafts Council Collection: 2016.18. Acquired with Art Fund support (with a contribution from The Wolfson Foundation) and a donation from Maylis and James Grand. Courtesy the artist, Paragon | Contemporary Editions Ltd and Victoria Miro. © Grayson Perry.

RISING SPLENDOUR: FRED APPELYARD FROM THE ROYAL ACADEMY TO THE ITCHEN VALLEY

21 June – 18 September

£4.50 / £3.50 concession / £2.50 child

The story of Fred Appleyard's (1874 – 1963) artistic career is one that seems to have been lost to art history. Working successfully as an accomplished Pre-Raphaelite styled painter at the turn of the century, Appleyard moved to Hampshire after the First World War and became captivated by his surroundings, changing his painting approach to British Impressionism. To commemorate the 150th anniversary of his birth, this specially curated exhibition draws together gems from private and public collections and seeks to reintroduce Appleyard as one of Britain's finest painters.

The exhibition includes rural landscapes of chalk streams and dappled light, tender portraits where light dances off the skin or is reflected in the dazzling Itchen water, and jewel-like, floral still-lives. Appleyard's accomplished drawings of his beloved Itchen Valley provide us with pin-point locations that many will recognise.
